<sup>1</sup> . <<To the chief Musician, [A Psalm] of David.>> In the LORD put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee [as] a bird to your mountain?

<sup>2</sup> For, lo, the wicked bend [their] bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

<sup>6</sup> Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: [this shall be] the portion of their cup.
