1. Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:

Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

And beside this, giving all grace, that they may walk by virtue in God's knowledge and of his righteousness, and of the knowledge of his divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

And to virtue add knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, and to temperance patience, and to patience godliness,

And to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness charity.

For if these qualities be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

But he that lacketh these things is far off from being perfect and entire in the sight of our Lord Jesus Christ.

For we have not here a continuing city, but we seek one to come.

And not, as it were, the substance, but the shadow of things to come; whereof the true body is Christ.

But of this commandment command you, that they contend earnestly for the faith which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

2 Peter 1

1. And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

2. And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.

3. But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

4. Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:
Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

15 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know [them], and be established in the present truth.

Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting [you] in remembrance;
hearts:

2 Peter 1:16

For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

And this voice which came from heaven, when we were with him in the holy mount.

We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:
20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake [as they were] moved by the Holy Ghost.
