Acts 5

1. But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2. And kept back [part] of the price, his wife also being privy [to it], and brought a certain part, and laid [it] at the apostles’feet.

3. But Peter said, Ananias, why hast Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back [part] of the price of the land?

4. Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not laid unto men, but unto God.

5. And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.
6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried [him] out, and buried [him].

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband [are] at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying [her] forth, buried [her] by her husband.
Acts 5

5:11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

5:12 , And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

11. And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12. , And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.
Acts 5

they were healed every one.

17. Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) were filled with indignation,
Acts 5

Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them together, without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.
Acts 5

And when they had brought them, they set [them] before the council: and the high priest asked them,

Saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

Then Peter and the [other] apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew, and hung on a tree.

He hath God exalted with our fathers, and hath prepared before the face of all people, a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.
And we are his witnesses of these things; and [so is] also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

When they heard [that], they were cut [to the heart], and took counsel to slay them.

Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.
Acts 5

After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, [even] as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten [them], they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.
