And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every disease.
7. Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

8. And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9. And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10. And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

11. And the people, when they knew [it], followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had

And they did so, and made them sit down. And they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

And they did so, and made them all sit down.
Luke 9

16 Then he took the five leaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and, brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 . And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering said, John the Baptist: but some [say], Elias; and others [say], that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of God.

21 And he straitly charged them, and commanded [them] to tell no man that thing:
Luke 9

22 And he said to [them] all, If any [man] will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

23 For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, he shall be ashamed also of the Son of man in the glory of his Father and in the Holy Ghost. And he said to [them] all, If any [man] will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 And he said to [them] all, If any [man] will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

For whosoever shall have his life shall lose it: but whosoever is willing to lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.
Moses and Elias: with him two men, which were white [and] glistering. John and James, and went up a mountain to pray. And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment [was] white [and] glistering.
While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

36 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.
Luke 9

And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone, and they kept [it] close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

And I besought thy love, and lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child.

And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone, And they kept [it] close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.
And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare [him]. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples,
For he that is least among you, which receiveth him that sent me, the same is greater than he.

Luke 9:46

And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a little child in his arms, and put him in their midst; and said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent me. For he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

Luke 9:47-48

But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them: they feared to ask him of that saying.

Luke 9:45
And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbade, because he followeth not with us.

And Jesus said unto him, Forbid [him] not: for he that is not against us is for us.

And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem,

And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

And when his disciples said, Master, who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

Luke 9

54 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

55 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men’s lives, but to save [them]. And they went to another village.

56 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air [have] nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay [his] head.
9:60

And another also said, Lord, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

61 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

62 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.
