Mark 8

1. In those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples [unto him], and saith unto them,

2. I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3. And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4. And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these [men] with bread here in the wilderness?

5. And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6. And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples
1. And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

2. And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he commanded to set them also into, and they did eat.

3. And they took up of the broken meat, that was left, twelve baskets: also of the fishes, there were five pairs of fishes.

4. And when they had eaten, they did set [them] before the multitude: and they did set [them] before the people.

5. And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

6. And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he commanded to set them also into, and they did eat.

7. And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before [them].

8. And they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken [meat] that was left seven baskets.

9. And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

10. And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.
And he sighed deep in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

Now [the disciples] had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and [of] the leaven of Herod.

And they reasoned among themselves, saying, [It is] because we have no bread.

And when Jesus knew [it], he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

And the seven when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

21 And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spitt on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I brake the five leaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

Thus Jesus took five thousand loaves, and two fishes, and having given thanks, he brake, and gave to the disciples, and they had meat to all.

And they brought him up, and had meat to all. And they said, Eighty and four persons did eat, besides them that ate of the pieces left over.

22 And they brought him up, and had meat to all. And they said, Eighty and four persons did eat, besides them that ate of the pieces left over.
And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

After that he put [his] hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town.

And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Caesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

. And they answered, John the Baptist: but some [say], Elias; and others, One of the prophets.

...and to him also, and let him renounce (let him be following) let-him-be-following !

For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his own soul? Whosoever therefore shall lose his own soul?

Or what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

For whosoever shall save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

34 And when he had called the people [unto him] with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For whosoever shall save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

36 Or what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?
And whenever he may be coming among men, shall he be ashamed of him?

But whoever may be ashamed of him among men,
his Father who is in heaven will be ashamed of him.

But whoever may be ashamed of me among men,
his Father who is in heaven will be ashamed of him.

But whoever may be ashamed of me among men,
his Father who is in heaven will be ashamed of him.
