Now king David was old [and] stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he got no heat.

Wherefore his servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin: and let her stand before the king, and let her cherish him, and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat.

Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

And his father had not displeased him at any time in saying. Why hast thou done so? and he also [was] a very goodly [man]; and [his mother] bare him after Absalom.

And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest: and they following Adonijah helped [him].

But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men which [belonged] to David, were not with Adonijah.

And Adonijah slew sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which [is] by Enrogel, and called all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants:
And he spake unto Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggit hath also reigned, and David our lord kneweth it not?"

Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon.

Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.

And Bathsheba bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And the king said, "What wouldst thou?"

And she said unto him, "My lord, thou knowest the LORD thy God, and thine handmaid knoweth that the LORD hath shewed manifestly to Davi - 1 Kings 1:10

But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he called not.

Wherefore Nathan spake unto Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggit doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not?"

Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon.
And thou, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel [are] upon thee; that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted offenders.

And, lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in.

And they told the king, saying, Behold Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.

And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?

For he is gone down this day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not called.

Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not shewed [it] unto thy servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?
Then king David answered and said, Call me Bathsheba. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king.

And the king sware, and said, [As] the LORD liveth, that hath redeemed my soul out of all distress.

Then Bathsheba bowed with [her] face to the earth, and did reverence to the king. And said, Let my lord king David live for ever.

And king David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king.

The king also said unto them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own mule, before the king.

And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel; and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon.

Then ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to sit upon my throne in my stead:

Moreover I will shew him the goodness of Israel: and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead.

As the LORD liveth, that hath redeemed my soul out of all distress, even so will I certainly do this day.

I shall do the day the this: call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and bring him down to to me to Zadok the priest and to Nathan the prophet, and to Solomon son of David, king, and said, Let my lord king David live for ever.

And king David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king.

The king also said unto them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own mule, before the king.

And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel; and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon.

Then ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah.
And the king answered Adonijah, and said, Why hast thou called me to-day?

He answered and said, ‘Because I have made a request, and thou hast answered me.’

And Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest answered and said to Nathan the prophet, ‘Because Solomon my lord hath said, “Thou shalt feed me with bread and with water, and with meat of my table: so shall I give thee wages, and thou shalt provide me with good victual.” ’

But I have made a request of my lord, that I also may speak one word: and my lord saith, ‘Speak on.’

Now therefore why hast thou called me to-day?

And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered and said, ‘Let none be moved: for the king hath not said, “Call Adonijah.” ’

And Solomon sat upon the throne of the kingdom.

And all the king’s brethren, with his mother, and all his kinsmen, had gathered themselves together, to beseech Solomon, saying, ‘God give thee wisdom and knowledge: and build thee an house such as is in Jerusalem, and reign in Israel.’

And Nathan and Benaiah and Adiudah the son of a Cherethite answered and said to the king, ‘Thus sayeth Adonijah, “Solomon my lord, and my master, shall reign over thee: and I shall have no son to rule over thee: and my lord the king shall be no more after thee: but I shall have in thy days a son to be ruler in Israel.” ’

And king David answered and said, ‘Shall he who is born of women reign over me, who was born of women?

And Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered and said, ‘Hearken, our sovereign lord, and let not Adonijah tell this thing.

For we thy servants will do according to the will of my lord the king, to make the king’s son king, after the manner of the kingdom of Israel.

So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon the mule of king David, and brought him to Gihon.

Then it was, when Zadok and Nathan and Benaiah came to Solomon, that they anointed him king, and cut off Adonijah’s head with an horn of oil.

And they blew the trumpet; and all the people came from the king’s house, even he and all Israel: and king Solomon sat on the throne of the kingdom.

And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them.

And Zadok the priest took an horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, ‘God save king Solomon.’

And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them.

And Adonijah and all the guests that [were] with him heard [it] as they had made an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore [is this] noise of the city being in an uproar?

And while he yet spake, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said unto him, Come in; for thou [art] a valiant man, and bringest good tidings.

And Jonathan said to Adonijah, ‘Stand up, and come in: why should my lord speak thus to his servant?

Now therefore come in, and let me give thee counsel.’

And Adonijah said unto Jonathan, ‘Come in, and hear my mouth.’

And Jonathan said unto Adonijah, ‘Come in, and hear my mouth.’

And he said, ‘Come in.’ Then Jonathan was sitting beside him upon his bed: now Jonathan was the brother of David.

And Jonathan said, ‘Thou knowest how our father laid a heavy burden upon us men of Israel; and now will ye make us both die today?

Had the king but delighted himself with me today, then should thy brother have been put to death, to day: but now he is in good case.

And now therefore, I pray thee, hear me: come not near unto the king.

And I will deliver thee in the hand of the king; and thou shalt be drowned in the lowest pit of the kingdom.

Then shall all that hear thy voice equip themselves for battle: for the king cannot deliver thee out of the hand of Joab.’
1:43 And he is answering Jonathan and he is saying to Adonijah nevertheless lords-of-us

1:50 And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and caught
1:51 And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah feareth king
Solomon: for, lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me to day that he will not slay his servant with the sword.

52 And Solomon said, If he will shew himself a worthy man, there shall not an hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die.

53 So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon: and Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house.
