And Elijah the Tishbite, [who was] one of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, [As] the LORD God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.

And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

And it shall be, [that] thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.

And he came to the gate of the city, and said, Take me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. And they said, There is a vessel at Rahab’s house; go in, and keep thyself there for the night, and thou shalt be隐藏 thyself thereunto. And he went in, and sat down at the place of the gate. Now there was a woman that was a widow, and she gathered up all the stubble of the field for to carry it home, that she might dress it for the man to eat. And she said, Now therefore, my lord, let a little water of the vessel be brought, and give me, that I may wash my feet. And he said, As the LORD liveth, since thou enquisest of me this thing, I will hide nothing from thee; nevertheless, the word is not thine, but mine. There is a woman that is a widow of seven men; and I command her not to gather of the stubble of these fields.

And she said, As thy soul liveth, my lord, I am a widow, and mine husband died; and thou didst bring me up for to feed me with thy bread, and with the cup of my drink, and with thine flesh in the evening; and I have gathered up all that the savages did give me that thou mightest sustain me. And when thou didst command the ravens to feed thee there, is it not hidden how I fed thee, and thy wife, and thy children? And she said, As thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the wife of Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and now I have gathered a情境 of meal for him that dwelleth by me, in whose house I dwell. And Elijah said unto her, Go to, make a little cake for me from thence out of the half of it; and also give me some to eat: for there is still a small morsel in it, that the dog shall not eat it with me, neither shalt thou eat it with thine house. So she went forth, and did according to the word of Elijah: and she had so much in the vessel afterward, as though it had not been touched at all.

Then the word of the Lord came unto Elijah, saying, Arise, go to the man Zarephath, which is near Sidon, and stay with him: and I have commanded him to take care of thee. And he arose and went to Zarephath, and came unto the gate of the city; and, behold, the woman came out to draw water, and said unto the man of God, Hath not my lord said to his servant, Go to Zarephath, and make a little cake for me from thence out of the half of it, that it may go on before the child, and eat it? And as thou hast spoken unto thy servant, so will I do. And she went into the house and did according to the word of Elijah: and he did eat and drank, and there was left in the vessel of meal and in the cruse of oil, according to the word of the Lord.
And as she was going to fetch [it], he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand.

And she said, [As] the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and, behold, I [am] gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.

And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go [and] do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring [it] unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son.

For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day [that] the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth.

And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat [many] days.

And [the] barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Elijah.

And it came to pass after these things, [that] the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was exceedingly unyielding exceedingly until which not
