And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had slain all the prophets with the sword.

Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, ‘And now, the gods of thy father, and the gods of thy mother, which have been with him since his childhood, they have not forsaken him; for he is lying.’

And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the night’s journey through the wilderness, and came and lodged there.

And when he saw that there was a cake baken on the coals, and a bottle of water, he ate and drank, and said, ‘This is enough; now, I will arise and go to my master.’

And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him, sitting under a juniper tree, and said unto him, ‘Arise, eat bread of the presence, for to the journey thou goest.’

And he looked, and, behold, there was a loaf baked on the coals, and a bottle of water. And he ate and drank, and said, ‘This is the hand of the LORD, for I am not better than my master.’

And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold, an angel touched him, and said unto him, ‘Arise, eat bread of the presence, for to the journey thou goest.’

And he inquired, and, behold, a cake baked on the coals, and a bottle of water. And he ate and drank, and lay down again.

And the angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, ‘Arise, eat bread of the presence, for to the journey thou goest.’

And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat forty days and forty nights unto Horeb the mount of God.
And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; and I, [even] I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

And it was [so], when Elijah heard [it], that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And, behold, [there came] a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah?

And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts: because the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, [even] I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

And the LORD said unto him, Go, return on thy way to the wilderness of Damascus: and when thou comest, anoint Hazael [to be] king over Syria:
And Jehu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint [to be] king over Israel: and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah shalt thou anoint [to be] prophet in thy room.

Yet I have left [me] seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.

So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who [was] plowing [with] twelve yoke [of oxen] before him, and Elijah passed by him, and cast his mantle upon him.

And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and turn again: for what have I done to thee?

And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered unto him.
