Then David said to Solomon, “You are a wise and understanding man. For what pleases the Lord is in your heart. Go then and build the temple of the Lord your God, with all your heart and with all your soul. See that you truly build the temple of the Lord your God, which he has proclaimed, saying, ‘My name will be there.’

Now the days of David drew nigh that he should die, and he charged Solomon his son, saying, 1 Kings 2:1-4

Then the Lord spoke to Solomon, saying, “Since this was your heart and you followed after my command, you have not forsaken them. And now, see, I have done according to your words. Behold, I have made you king over this people, and with the wealth of the house of Jacob your father shall you reign. And you shall build my temple, and you shall gather wealth for my temple in all things, in silver and in gold. 1 Kings 8:17-22

Moreover thou knowest also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, [and] what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto Abner the son of Ner, and unto Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that [was] about his loins, and in his shoes that [were] on his feet. 1 Kings 2:27-34

1 I go the way of all the earth: be thou strong therefore, and shew thyself a man: 1 Kings 3:9

2 And keep the charge of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself: 1 Kings 3:11

3 That the LORD may continue his word which he spake concerning me, saying, If thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel. 1 Kings 3:14

4 Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to the grave in peace. 1 Kings 3:28

5 But shew kindness unto the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eat at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled because of Absalom thy brother. 1 Kings 3:29
Now therefore hold him not guiltless: for thou [art] a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him; but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave with blood.

10 So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

11 And the days that David reigned over Israel [were] forty years: seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

12 Then sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was established greatly.

13 And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Comest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably.

14 He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and [that] all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's: for it was his from the LORD.

16 And now I ask one petition of thee, deny me not. And she said unto him,
And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say thee nay,) that he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife.

And Bathsheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand.

Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee; [I pray thee], say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on my mother, for I will not say thee nay.

And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask for Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; for he [is] mine elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.
and he is bringing back the veil of David father of me and who he made for me house

...he shall be put to death this day.

And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died.

And unto Abiathar the priest said the king. Get thee to Anathoth, unto thine own fields; for thou [art] worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the Lord before David my father, and because thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted.

So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the Lord; that he might fulfil the word of the Lord, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

Then tidings came to Joab: for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom. And Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the Lord, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled after Adonijah, though he might fulfil the word of the Lord, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the Lord, and said unto him, Thus saith the king. Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.

And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury
And the LORD shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit. Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.

33 Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the LORD.

34 So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him: and he was buried in his own house in Jerusalem.

35 And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiaathar.

36 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell therein, and go not forth out of thence. For the saying [is] good: peace and prosperity be upon thee in the name of the LORD thy God.

37 For it shall be, [that] on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook Kidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon thine own head.

38 And Shimei said unto the king. The saying [is] good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.
And Solomon [shall be] blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever.

And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish son of Maachah king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants [be] in Gath.

And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath.

And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.

And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saist unto me, The word [that] I have heard [is] good.

Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with?

The king said moreover unto Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: and the king added not any more unto Shimei.

And Solomon brought up the money for the work that David his father began to build in the LORD's temple, and for the king's house, and Jehoiada the son of Zadok the priest, and Zechariah the son of Josadak the priest.

Thus Solomon finished the temple which he built.

David had said, Solomon my son shall build me an house in which to dwell for ever.
and fell upon him, that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.
