And it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is [is] the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD.

And the house which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof [was] three-score cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits.

And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits [was] the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house: and [and] ten cubits [was] the breadth thereof before the house.

And for the house he made windows of narrow lights.

And against the wall of the house he built chambers round about, [against] the walls of the house round about, [both] of the temple and of the oracle: and he made chambers round about:

The nethermost chamber [was] five cubits broad, and the middle [was] six cubits broad, and the third [was] seven cubits broad: for without [in] the wall of the house he made narrowed rests round about, that [the beams] should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe [nor] any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.

The door for the middle chamber [was] in the right side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle [chamber], and out of the middle into the third.

So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house with beams and boards of cedar.
And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, both the floor of the house, and the walls of the cieling: and he overlaid the floor of the house unto the ceiling with overlaid wood from inside the house, and finished it.

And the cedar of the house within was twenty cubits long, thirty cubits wide, and thirty cubits high.

And he overlaid it with pure gold, within and without: and he prepared a mercy seat for it, and overlaid it with pure gold: and he made two cherubims of pure gold: the one wing of the first cherub was at the one side of the mercy seat, and the other wing at the other side of the mercy seat; and the other two wings of the other cherub were at the other side of the altar of incense.

And he made a table of brass: the length thereof was eight cubits, and the breadth thereof was three cubits, and the height thereof was a cubit and a half: and he overlaid it with pure gold, and made for it a rim of half a cubit round about.

And he made in the temple windows of iworh and iweiy; and iworh and iweiy he overlaid the temple with pure gold.

And he made tables of brass; the length thereof was three cubits, and the breadth thereof was two cubits.

And he made sockets of pure gold, and staves of pure gold, and basins of pure gold: the weight of the pure gold for the sockets of the sea was a hundred talents.

And he made ten lamps of pure gold for the lampstand, and made ten branches thereof; and the branches thereof, and the lamps thereof, made he of pure gold: and he made for the lampstand five sockets of pure gold, to set in the lampstand, and five holes therein, to the branches thereof.

And he made a sea of brass: the length thereof was twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof was ten cubits, and the height thereof was five cubits; and he made upon it a rim of three cubits round about.

And he made a molten cherub on the one side of the sea, and a molten cherub on the other side of the sea; he made upon the one side of the sea lᵉᵗˢᵉᵉ and lᵉᵗˢᵉᵉ, and upon the other side thereof lᵉᵗˢᵉᵉ and lᵉᵗˢᵉᵉ.

And he made a hanging for the sea of one hundred and twenty cubits of rope of twisted linen and purple and scarletstuff: the weight of the hanging of the sea was a hundred talents.

And he made in the hangings cherubims of iworh and iweiy, to cover the openings of the sea at the ends thereof.

And he made for the hangings cherubims of iworh and iweiy, to cover the openings of the sea at the ends thereof. One cherub was at the one side of the sea, and the other cherub at the other side thereof: and he made for the hangings for the one cherub lᵉᵗˢᵉᵉ and lᵉᵗˢᵉᵉ, and for the other cherub lᵉᵗˢᵉᵉ and lᵉᵗˢᵉᵉ.
And Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold; and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold.

And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that [was] by the oracle he overlaid with gold.

And within the oracle he made two cherubims [of] olive tree, [each] ten cubits high.

And five cubits [was] the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other [were] ten cubits.

And the other cherub [was] ten cubits: both the cherubims [were] of one measure and one size.

The height of the one cherub [was] ten cubits, and so [was it] of the other cherub.

And he set the cherubims within the inner house: and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the [one] wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

And he overlaid the cherubims with gold.

And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of...
And the door of the temple posts of olive tree, a fourth part of [the wall].

And the two doors [were] of fir tree: the two leaves of the one door [were] folding, and the two leaves of the other door [were] folding.

And he carved [thereon] cherubims and palm trees and open flowers: and covered [them] with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubims, and upon the palm trees.

And he built the inner court with three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar beams.

And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.

And for the entering of the oracle he made doors [of] olive tree: the lintel [and] side posts [were] a fifth part [of the wall].

The two doors also [were] of olive tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid [them] with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubims, and upon the palm trees.

So also made he for the door of the temple posts of olive tree, a fourth part [of the wall].

And the two doors [were] of fir tree: the two leaves of the one door [were] folding, and the two leaves of the other door [were] folding.

And he carved [thereon] cherubims and palm trees and open flowers: and covered [them] with gold fitted upon the carved work.

And he built the inner court with three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar beams.
