Go you and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.

And Saul said, God hath delivered the Philistines into thine hand. Go and smite them.

Then David enquired of the LORD. And the LORD said, Go and smite the Philistines. And the LORD said unto David, Go, and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.

Therefore David enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the LORD said, Go, and smite them: for I will deliver them into thine hand.

And Saul said, God hath delivered the Philistines into thine hand. Go and smite them. And Saul said to David, You shall go, and smite the Philistines, and let me know what you have done. For you are not anointed with oil in the hand of God.

And Saul said to David, Go and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah. Therefore David enquired of the LORD. And the LORD said, Go and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.

So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

And it came to pass, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, [that] he came down [with] an ephod in his hand.

And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.
And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the ephod.

Then said David, O LORD God of Israel, thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake.

Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the LORD said, He will come down.

Then said David, Will Saul come down, as the men of Keilah are saying? and the LORD said, He will not come down. Fear not: for the hand of Saul shall not find thee to day.

And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him not into his hand.

And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David [was] in the wilderness of Ziph.

And Jonathan Saul's son arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened his hand in God.

And he said unto him, Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not find
Go, I pray you, prepare you to surrender of him, and even Saul father of me knowing so.

Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and our part [shall be] to deliver him into the king's hand.

And Saul said, Blessed [be] ye of the LORD; for ye have compassion on me.

Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and see his place where his haunt is, [and] who hath seen him [that] he dealeth very subtilly.

See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah.

And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men [were] in the wilderness of Maon, in the plain on the south of Jeshimon.

Saul also and his men went to seek [him]. And they told David: wherefore he came down into a rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard [that], he pursued thee; and thou shalt be king over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; and that also Saul my father knoweth.
26 And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain: and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about to take them.

27 But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come; for the Philistines have invaded the land.

28 Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place Selahammahlekoth.
