In the sixth and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Benhadad king of Israel, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

There is a league between me and thee, as [there was] between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

And Benhadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Beth-shan, and Caraim, and Aššûr, and购ḥāl, and the store cities of Nāphṭalī.

And the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand.

1Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

2And it came to pass, when Baasha heard [it], that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease.
And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign.

And thereуд buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds [of spices] prepared by the apothecaries’art: and they made a very great burning for him.
