21 And it came to pass, when the LORD would take Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went west from Jordan.

22 And Elijah said unto Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Bethel. And Elisha said unto him, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Bethel.

23 And the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho came forth to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thee to day? And he said, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace.

24 And it came to pass, when the LORD would take him thence, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Bethel. And Elisha answered, and said unto him, So let it be; as thou sayest, I pray thee, so will I do. And he departed no further with him.

25 And they two stood by Jordan. And he said, Take a mantle, and wrap [it] in a mantle, and take away thy master from thee to day.

26 And he said, Wherefore? And he said, Because the LORD hath sent me to Jericho. And he said, Go up; and I will send thee forth by the whirlwind, and thou shalt not return by the way that thou camest.

27 And it came to pass, when the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho came to Elisha, that they said unto him, Behold, the LORD hath sent me to Bethel. And Elisha said unto them, Go up and send. And they went up.

28 Then said Elijah unto Elisha, Take my mantle, and gird thee therewith, as the Lord liveth, and he is taking Elijah. And he took it, and girded him therewith.
And when the sons of the prophets which [were] to view at Jericho saw him, and he took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of Jordan;

And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where [is] the LORD God of Elijah? and when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither: and Elisha went over.
And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the Spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send.

And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not.

And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not?

And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city [is] pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water [is] naught, and the ground barren.

And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt in it. Then he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and he took a new cruse, and put salt therein: and he brought it [to] him. And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in thereat; and the waters were healed already, even unto this day.

He lifted up his spirit of Yahweh and he is flinging him in one of the mountains or in one of the valleys.
And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. And there came forth two she bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them.

And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.
