26:1 and he is coming in year of the tenth month to the gates of Jericho.

26:2 and they are scattering the young men of the city and all of the mortals of the war the night of the gate.

26:3 And they are saying to the king of Babylon, king of Babylon went the way toward Riblah; and they are building on her siege-work round-about.

26:4 And it came to pass in the eighth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon went the way toward Jericho; and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched in the plains of Jericho: and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched.

26:5 And the army of the Chaldees pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army were scattered from him.

26:6 And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

26:7 And in the fifth month, on the seventh [day] of the month, which [is] the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, as Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem:

26:8 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon he-came Nebuzaradan grandee-of executioners servant-of Jerusalem and all of house of great one he-burned in fire.
And all the army of the Chaldees, that [were with] the captain of the guard, brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about.

Now the rest of the people [that were] left in the city, and the fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carry away.

But the captain of the guard left of the poor of the land [to be] vinedressers and husbandmen.

And the pillars of brass that [were] in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brazen sea that [was] in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.

And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

And the firepans, and the bowls, [and] such things as [were] of gold, [in] gold, and of silver, [in] silver, the captain of the guard took away.

The two pillars, one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD: the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

The height of the one pillar [was] eighteen cubits, and the chapterer upon it [was] brass: and the height of the chapterer three cubits; and the wreathen work, and pomegranates upon the chapterer round about, all of brass: and like unto these had he the second pillar with wreathen work.

And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the...
And Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over land.

And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

And Gedaliah swore to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon; and it shall be well with you.

But it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the second priest, and the three keepers of the door:
son of Elishama, of the seed royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah.

26 And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, and came to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldees.

27 And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth [day] of the month, [that] Evilmerodach king of Babylon in the year that he began to reign did lift up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison;

28 And he spake kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that [were] with him in Babylon;

29 And changed his prison garments: and he did eat bread continually before the king, and covered of the kings who with him in Babylon.

30 And his allowance [was] a continual allowance given him of the king, a daily rate for every day, all the days of his life.
