41 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? and she said, There is no vessel, two of children of me for him.

42 Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, [even] empty vessels; borrow not a few.

43 She went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought [the vessels] to her; and she poured out.

44 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me, I pray thee, the vessels. And he went, as she said unto him.

45 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into thine hand the vessels, and shalt bring them to him again.

46 And it was, when she came in that she said, There is no more standing vessel; and the oil was spent.

47 Then she came and told Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD; and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.

48 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou? She said, A great vessel of oil. So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, and they brought the vessels to her.

49 And when she came in, she said, It is well. And she poured out a bowl of oil for Elisha, and poured out a bowl full for him. 50 And he said unto her, Take a bow full of oil, and pour it upon the walls thereof, that it may make brickies strong. 51 And she went forth, and did so. 52 And he wrote in the book a title, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I will return unto thee about this time of the next year, and I will restore thee thine own son unto thee. 53 Then she returned that year, and she bearing a son. And she said, Behold, my lord, as thy servant did fear, so was it even so to me, that the Lord had shewed me this good thing. 54 And it came to pass about this time of the year, that Elisha went up to the mountain of God to offer sacrifice. And there rendeth the prophet's coat, and casteth it down to the ground.

55 Then she came and told Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD; and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.

56 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou? She said, A great vessel of oil. So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, and they brought the vessels to her. and she constrained him to eat bread. And [so] it was, [that] as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread.

9 And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this [is] an holy man of God, which passeth by us continually.

10 Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick; and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.

11 And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there.

12 And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, now, I pray thee, I have heard that there is oil in thy house: get thee quickly, and sell it, and pay the price of my child, and bury me.

14 And he said, What then is to be done for thee? Wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people.
And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.

And he said unto his father, My head, my head. And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother.

And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and [then] died.

And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut [the door] upon him, and went out.

And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.

And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? [it is] neither new moon, nor sabbath. And she said, [It shall be] well.

Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; slack not [thy] riding for me, except I bid thee.
Wherefore he went again to the child. And he arose, and followed the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing.

And he arose, and followed the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. And he arose, and followed the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing.

And he arose, and followed the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing.

Then he said, Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not say, Do not deceive me?

Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way; if thou meet any man, salute him not; for the soul of her that Shunammite: and the child said, [As] the LORD liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her.

And the mother of the child said, [As] the LORD liveth, and [as] thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her.

And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but [there was] neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not awaked.
And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, [and] laid upon his bed.

He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the LORD.

And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands; and he stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm.

Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son.

And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, [and] laid upon his bed.

And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred [them] into the pot of pottage: for they knew [them] not.

And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred [them] into the pot of pottage: for they knew [them] not.
So they poured out for the men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O [thou] man of God, [there is] death in the pot. And they could not eat thereof.

But he said, Then bring meal. And he cast [it] into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was no harm in the pot.

And there came a man from Baalshalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of corn in the husk thereof. And he said, Give unto the people, that they may eat.

And his servitor said, What, should I set this before an hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the LORD, They shall eat, and shall leave thereof.

So he set [it] before them, and they did eat, and left [thereof], according to the word of the LORD.
