Again, David gathered together all [the] chosen [men] of Israel, thirty thousand. And David arose, and went with all the people that [were] with him from Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, whose name is called by the name of the LORD of hosts that dwelleth [between] the cherubims.

And they set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that [was] in Gibeal: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drave the new cart.

And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab which [was] at Gibeah, accompanying the ark of God: and Ahio went before the ark.

And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD on all manner of [instruments made of] fir wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals.

And when they came to Nachon’s threshing-floor, Uzzah put forth [his hand] to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen shook [it].

And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah: and God smote him there for [his] error; and there he died by the ark of God.

And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perezuzzah to this day.

And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come to me?
10 And the Ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom three months: and the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.

11 And it was [so], that when they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings.

12 And David danced before the LORD with all [his] might; and David [was] girded with a linen ephod of Obed-edom, and all that came up before the LORD with Shimea the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all that came up before the LORD with Shimea the Gittite.

13 And it was [so], that when they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings.

14 And David danced before the LORD with all [his] might; and David [was] girded with a linen ephod of Obed-edom, and all that came up before the LORD with Shimea the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all that came up before the LORD with Shimea the Gittite.

15 And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

16 And they brought in the Ark of the LORD, and set it in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and she pitched in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it.

17 And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

18 And they brought in the Ark of the LORD, and set it in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and she pitched in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it.

19 And they brought in the Ark of the LORD, and set it in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and she pitched in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it.

20 And they brought in the Ark of the LORD, and set it in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and she pitched in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it.
And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

And he dealt among all the people, [even] among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece [of flesh], and a flagon [of wine]. So all the people departed every one to his house.

Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was my father's house, which became after the house of David; and that which was also after me of all his daughters, whom he had made prince over the people? And it was before Saul had made an end of offering—

And as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece [of flesh], and a flagon [of wine]. So all the people departed every one to his house.

Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.
