Then we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea, as the LORD spake unto me: and we compassed mount Seir many days.

And the LORD spake unto me, saying,

Ye have compassed this mountain long enough: turn you northward.

And command thou the people, saying, Ye [are] to pass through the coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed unto yourselves therefore:

Ye shall buy meat of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also buy water of them for money, that ye may drink.

For the LORD thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thy hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: these forty years the LORD thy God [hath been] with thee; thou hast lacked nothing.

And when we passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the plain from Elath, and from Ezion-gaber, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.
And the LORD said unto me, Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of their land [for] a possession; because I have given Ar unto the children of Lot [for] a possession.

The Emims dwelt therein in times past, great and many, and tall, as the Anakims;

Which also were accounted giants, as the Anakims; but the Moabites call them Emims.

The Horims also dwelt in Seir before; but the children of Esau succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their stead; as Israel did unto the land of his possession, which the LORD gave unto them.

Now rise up, [said I], and get you over the brook Zered. And we went over the brook Zered.

And the space in which we came from Kadeshbarnea, until we were come over the brook Zered, [was] thirty and eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the LORD spake unto them.

For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were consumed.

So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people,

That the LORD spake unto me, saying,

Thou art to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day:
And you shall possess it, and you shall drive them out before you; and you shall dispose of them, and you shall dwell in their stead.

And the Avims which dwelt in Hazerim, [even] unto Azzah, the Caphtorims, which came forth out of Caphtor, (that is, Egypt) and dwelt in their stead.

Then did you possess Arnon and Mount Sibmah, and Judge, and Nebo, and Baal-geshem: the plain of Moab is yours.

And the Amorite inhabiting this land, from Heshbon unto Azzah, and from the river Arnon unto Mount Sirion, even Hermon, the Amorite, and they that dwelt in the vale of Beth-haram, and in the vale of Niphon, and in the vale of Jabbok, and in the vale of Carmel, from Lebaoth even unto all the cities of the hill-country, and all the plain, the Arabah, even Ashdod, with the border thereof; the entire people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims: but the LORD was not willing to give it unto you.

And all the inhabitants of the mountains, and the Lebanon under the one hand, and the Amorites under the other hand, as far as Jordan, the inhabitants of the wilderness, even the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, ye did not drive them out from before you: and the LORD our God spake it not unto you.

And you said, I will not serve the LORD, nor will I perform this commandment or this statute.

For this thing was not done in your fathers' days, when they were overcharged by him that was strong, neither was there any among them of their days that was like him, whom he set over them in your land to be their head, from the Lord your God.

Moreover, the man of war was strong among you, as the man of war which God gave you from among your fathers; they were all strong in heart to go in to battle, and not to be afraid of anything.

And the people were strong in heart to go up and to possess the land, because ye had stablished the soul of this people, saying, I will go up; I will go up to battle, with theime.
I shall pass in land of you in 13th way. I shall go not. I shall withdraw right.

234 Let me pass through thy land. I will go along by the high way. I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left.

229 Thou shalt sell me meat for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: only I will pass through on my feet;

228 (As the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did unto me) until I shall pass over Jordan into the land which the LORD our God gave us.

227 Let the LORD pass through thy land: I will go along by the high way, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left.

215 Only the cattle we took for a prey unto ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took.

216 From Aroer, which [is] by the brink of the river of Arnon, and [from] the city that [is] by the river, even unto Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us: the LORD our God delivered all unto us:

37 Only unto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, [nor] unto any place of the river Jabbok, nor unto the cities in the mountains, nor unto whatsoever the LORD our God forbad us.
