Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth [day] of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of [their] fathers, a lamb for an house:

Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year; ye shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats:

And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening.

And ye shall take of the blood, and strike [it] on the two side posts and on the lintel on the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread; [and] with bitter [herbs] they shall eat it.

And eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water, but roast [with] fire; his head with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof.

And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning: and that which remain of it until the morning shall you burn.

1 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,
And I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I [am] the LORD.

And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye [are]; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy [you], when I smite the land of Egypt.

And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.

Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day shall ye put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel.

And in the first day [there shall be] an holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation; no manner of work shall be done in them; save [that] which every man must eat, that only may be done of [that] day.

Remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire.

11 And thus shall ye eat it; [with] your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste: it [is] the LORD’S passover.
shall eat unleavened bread, and in your houses: for whatsoever eateth that which is unleavened bread, until the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread.

Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whatsoever eateth that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land.

Ye shall eat nothing leavened in all your habitations: for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out and take; and take you a lamb without blemish.

And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two side posts of the houses: for whosoever shall not do so, the blood that is in the basin shall be upon him, when I visit him in that night: and the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite [you].

And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever.

And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD hath given you, according to all that Moses spake: this do; according to all these ordinances.

In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.
26 And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service?

27 That ye shall say, It [is] the sacrifice of the LORD'S passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshipped.

28 And the children of Israel went away, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29 And it came to pass, that at midnight the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, and all the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for [there was] not a house where [there was] not one dead.

31 And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, [and] get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said.

32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and bless me also.

33 And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of Israel.
Exodus 12

and the land in haste; for they said, We [be] all dead [men].

And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneadingtroughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment:

And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them [such things as they required]. And they spoiled the Egyptians.

And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot [that were] men, beside children.

And a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, [even] very much cattle.

And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves anything victual.

Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, [was] four hundred and thirty years.

And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.
And when a stranger sojourneth with you, ye shall keep the passover to the LORD in the midst of your land; but ye shall eat it without leaven.

In one house shall it be kept.

Neither shall there be any leaven, no bondman shall eat thereof.

In the night when ye go out of Egypt shall ye keep it.

And it shall be, when Moses and Aaron had performed all these commandments before all the children of Israel,

They took their cattle and everything that they had and went out of Egypt in accordance with the commandments of the LORD and in accordance with the statutes of Moses,

Thus did all the children of Israel, and all the strangers that sojourned among them, observe the passover.

And every man’s servant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.
