The LORD said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father’s house, unto a land that I will shew thee.

And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:

And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran.

And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother’s son, and all that they had gathered, and fifty souls, and pitched his tent, having made there an altar unto the LORD.

And the LORD appeared unto Abram the second time, when he was sitting in the porch of the tent, toward the evenings of the day.

And the LORD said unto Abram, Fear not, Abram; I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward.

And Abram said, O Lord GOD, what wilt thou do unto me, and to my house, for I am but a stranger in this land.

And he brought him forth to view the land, standing upon Mount Moriah.

And the LORD appeared unto Abram, and called unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land.

And Abram said, Lord GOD, what wilt thou do unto my nation and to the house of my kindred?

And the LORD said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thine seed shall be a nations.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou [art] a fair woman to look upon:

Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee that they shall say, This [is] his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.

12 And it came to pass, that, when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman that she [was] very fair.

The princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh: and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house.

13 And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, What [is] this [that] thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she [was] thy wife?

14 And he entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and heasses, and camels.

15 And the LORD plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai Abram's wife.

16 And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, What [is] this [that] thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she [was] thy wife?

17 And Pharaoh commanded [his] men concerning him: and they sojourn there; for the famine [was] grievous in the land.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou [art] a fair woman to look upon:
sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.
