And there came two angels to Sodom at even; and Lot sat in the gate of Sodom: and Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground;

1 And he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant’s house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, Nay; but we will abide in the street all night.

2 And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house; and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat.

3 And it came to pass on the next day, when the sun shined, and the Shaft came upon Sodom and Gomorrah, and upon all the land of the vale of the Shor, and upon all the cities thereof, and upon the whole land of Sharon;

4 But before they lay down, the men of Sodom had taken Lot, and carried him into the city; and they had compassed the house round, to the door.

5 And they said unto him, Where are the men that came in by thee? Bring them out unto us.

6 And he said, Behold now, my brethren, I pray you, tarry this night in this place: I will take bread, and will make you all meat; and ye shall lodge this night, and in the morning go your way free.

7 And he said, I pray you, if I find favour in your sight, then I beseech you, say this word unto your servants, concerning whom you have spoken.

8 Say, I pray you, I come from Zedad; and say, He is a man of Zedad; and say, He is a man of Zoar; and say, He is a shepherd, and he is a skinner; and say, He hath a wife.

9 For it will be, when we come into Egypt; every man of us is known for his sheep, and for his cattle, and for his chief things; and there will be a explaining of this wickedness unto us.

10 And it came to pass at even, that Lot went out, and sat himself down at the entrance of the city, and lifted up his eyes, and looked towards Sodom and Gomorrah: and behold, the smoke of the land went up like the smoke of a furnace.

11 And the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven; and he smote the cities, and all the land of Shinar, and Eker, and Siddim, and Admah, and Zeboim, and Zoar.

12 So it came to pass, when God wrought those things upon Sodom and Gomorrah, that he remembered Abraham, and brought Lot out of the midst of the destruction, when he overthrew the cities of the vale.

13 And he said to him, Haste, and get thee out of this place, for I know that thou hast and wilt deal faithfully: for I have seen thy works, and that thou hast and wilt teach the art of peace, and hast kept the same: and also, behold, the cities are very wicked; and I must destroy them.

14 And the Lord said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous; therefore I will rise up, and search them of evil.

15 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons-in-law, which married his daughters, and said, Rise up, escape to the mountain, lest ye be consumed with the destruction of Sodom.

16 For I have seen, that the Lord is come to judge the world: for iniquity of these pagans is great in the land, and common among them.

17 And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the vale of Sodom, that he remembered Abraham, and brought Lot out of the midst of the destruction.

18 And Lot took his two daughters, whom he had brought up, and dwelt in the mountain; for he feared to stay in Sodom: and it came to pass, that when the sun went down, and it was dark, that two angels came to Sodom, which dwelleth toward the plain; and Lot saw them, and ran to meet them, to the chamber of the gate, and bowed himself with his face to the ground,

19 And said, Arise, escape hence: for the Lord has smitten Sodom and Gomorrah. And he and his two daughters hastened, and brought them forth unto the chamber, even unto the very top of the gate.

20 And he said, Escape to the mountain, lest ye be consumed with the destruction of Sodom.

21 And he said, Behold, I have received you to lodge you; therefore if you come near unto the city, and lodge within the city, you shall be consumed with all the city.

22 But he said, I pray you, let a little space be given me, and I will speak unto this People, and save both my soul and your soul.

23 And he said, You have spoken well. I will not destroy them, and I will not destroy them.

24 And it came to pass, as the morning was come, when the daughter-in-law of Lot brought forth her two daughters, the one whose name was Job, and the other whose name was Job, that Job came and bowed himself with his face to the ground, and put his hands upon his head.

25 And he said, Where is Lot? for I have surely taken you in an oath, that you would do me this kindness, that you would not kill me, as long as I come in unto you, and as long as I stay in the gate of Sodom; I will not be guilty of sin against you, as long as I stay in this place.

26 But the Lord said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous; I will go down now, and see, whether they have done utterly according to the cry of the LORD, which is come unto me; for I have now heard it.

27 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons-in-law, which married his daughters, and said, Arise, escape to the mountain, lest ye be consumed with the destruction of Sodom. And he and his two daughters hastened, and brought them forth unto the chamber, even unto the very top of the gate.

28 And he said, Escape to the mountain, lest ye be consumed with the destruction of Sodom. And he said, Where is Lot? for I have surely taken you in an oath, that you would do me this kindness, that you would not kill me, as long as I come in unto you, and as long as I stay in this place.

29 But he said, I pray you, let a little space be given me, and I will speak unto this People, and save both my soul and your soul.

30 And he said, You have spoken well. I will not destroy them, and I will not destroy them.

31 And the angel of the LORD said, This is a instruction to you, concerning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah: make speed, escape hence; for this is I will destroy them.

32 The Lot turned his face, and ran towards Sodom, and looked back, and said in his heart, I will now turn back again into Sodom, and see what is done there.

33 And the Lord saw that it was good. And there was a turning again to be plummeted upon Sodom and Gomorrah into brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven;

34 And he said, The Lor...
But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

And while he lingered, the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any to whom thou mayst shut the door, and shut it fast? son in law, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring [them] out of this place:

For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it.

And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, which married his daughters, and said, Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons in law.

And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city.

But the men pressed sore upon the man, [even] Lot, and came near to break the door.

10 And they smote the men that [were] at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great; so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

11 And the men said unto Lot, Arise, go thou out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons in law.
And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth, that they said unto them, Escape, go forth from the city: for the LORD hath shewed you what he will do.

18 And they said, How shall we escape? This city is very fair to dwell in, and it is the mother of cities, and the tower of the house of Jacob. Therefore he was afraid to dwell in the city, and he went out, and dwelt in the field at Zara; then he built the city.

19 And Lot chose for himself all the Plain of Jordan; and Lot dwelt in Zoar; for he was afraid of the city, and he dwelt by a corner of the city; and his two daughters with him; for he feared to take them out of the city, for fear that the men of the land might slay them.

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto; and it was a little one; Oh, let me flee thither: and it was upon the face of it, that thou saidst, I will not destroy it for the righteousness of the inhabitants of the place.

21 So Lot went unto him, and said, Behold now, I have found thy servant a little one: Oh, let me take one dart of thine, I pray thee, of all thy bounty; even to my matter of peace, to my city: save thy servant, I pray thee.

22 And he said unto him, Haste thee, escape thither: for I cannot do anything until thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

23 The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

24 Then the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrha brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven; and he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the 25 And his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him; and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where he stood before the LORD:

And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

And Lot went out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountain: and two daughters of him remained unto the younger, Our father sent Lot out of the midst of Sodom and Gomorrah, and we fear to dwell in Zoar; and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

And the firstborn said unto the younger, Our father is old, and [there is] not a man in the earth to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth:

Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

And they made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, [and] lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

And the firstborn bare a son, and called his name Moab: the same [is] the father of the Moabites unto this day.

And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name Benammi: the same [is] the father of the children of Ammon unto this day.
