And Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac.

And Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him.

And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, [so that] all that hear will laugh with me.

And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck? for I have born [him] a son in his old age.

And the child grew, and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the [same] day that Isaac was weaned.

And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had born unto Abraham, mocking.

And wherefore she said unto Abraham, Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, [even] with Isaac.

And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight because of his son.
And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make a nation, because he [is] thy seed.

And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave [it] unto Hagar, putting [it] on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away:

And the water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.

And she went, and sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and wept.

And God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he [is].

And Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for I will make him a great nation.

And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink.
And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What meanest thou, that thou hast done this thing? neither didst thou tell me, when thou didst dealt deceitfully with me, and wot not who hath done this thing?

And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away.

And Abimelech said, I will swear.

And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away.

And Abimelech reproved Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away.

Now therefore swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness which I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.

And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech, and both of them made a covenant.

And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What meanest thou, that thou hast done this thing? neither didst thou tell me, when thou didst dealt deceitfully with me, and wot not who hath done this thing?

And Abimelech reproved Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away.

And Abimelech reproved Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away.

22 And it came to pass at that time, that Abimelech and Phichol the chief captain of his host spake unto Abraham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest:

23 Now therefore swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness which I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.

24 And Abraham said, I will swear.

25 And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech said, I will swear.

27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech, and both of them made a covenant.

28 And Abimelech set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What meanest thou, that thou hast done this thing? neither didst thou tell me, when thou didst dealt deceitfully with me, and wot not who hath done this thing?

30 And God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer.

31 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.
And he said, For [these] seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well.

Wherefore he called that place Beersheba; because there they sware both of them.

Thus they made a covenant at Beersheba: then Abimelech rose up, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

And [Abraham] planted a grove in Beersheba, and called there on the name of the LORD, the everlasting God.

And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines'land many days.
