and I will consider in my heart how I have afflicted you. For the LORD will do as he has said. For so the LORD said unto me, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden down, whose land the rivers have spoiled!

2 All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye.

For so the LORD said unto me, I will take my rest, and consider in my dwelling place like a clear heat upon herbs, [and] like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

3 They shall be left together unto the fowls of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.

In that time shall the sound of the trumpet be heard in the mountains, and the valley shall be full of sealed信者，and deliverance to Zion.

Woe to the land shadowing with wings, which [is] beyond the rivers of Ethiopia:

That sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, [saying]. Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden down, whose land the rivers have spoiled!
