Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and the earth and all the inhabitants thereof shall grow old like a garment; and the earth and all the inhabitants thereof shall grow old like a garment; and the earth shall be rolled up like a garment; and all flesh shall be as the dust of the ground.

1. Hearken to me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart [is] my law; fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

2. For the LORD shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

3. My righteousness [is] near, my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait for my law, and kings shall wait for my word.

4. Hearken unto me, my people, and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from me, and a law shall go forth from me, to light the Gentiles; and my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

5. For the LORD shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.
Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD, awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. [Art] thou not that hath cut Rahab, [and] wounded the dragon?

Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy [shall be] upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; [and] sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

The captive exile hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? and where [is] the fury of the oppressor?

But I [am] the LORD thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and forgettest the LORD, thy maker, that hath made thee; and of the son of man [which] shall be made [as] grass;
And I have put my words in thy mouth, and I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou [art] my people.

Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, [and] wrung [them] out.

There is none to guide her among all the sons [whom] she hath brought forth; neither [is there any] that taketh her by the hand of all the sons [that] she hath brought up.

These two [things] are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I comfort thee?

Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net; they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.

But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said to thy God, Thou [are] not [he]; and as [the] street for [them] passing over.
