Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Beersheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the LORD in Mizpeh.

And the chief of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen that drew sword.

And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about about upon me by night, [and] thought to have slain me: and my concubine have they forced, that she is dead.

And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the tribes of Israel, to bring upon them any thing of the wickedness which I will turn into his house.

Behold, ye [are] all children of Israel; give here your advice and counsel.

And all the people arose as one man, saying, We will not any [of us] go to his tent, neither will we any [of us] turn into his house.

But now this [shall be] the thing which we will do to Gibeah; we will go up by lot against it; and we will take ten of an hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch victual for the people, that...
And the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knitted together as one man. 12. And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness [is] this that is done among you?

Now therefore deliver [us] the men, the children of Belial, which [are] in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel:

But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel.

And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the cities twenty and six thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

Among all this people [there were] seven hundred chosen men lefthanded; every one could sling stones at hair [breadth], and not miss.

And the children of Israel arose, and went up to the house of God, and asked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah [shall go up] first.
And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped on the Gibeah.

And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight against them at Gibeah.

And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites that day twenty and two thousand men.

And the people the men of Israel encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array in the first day.

And the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.)
And the children of Israel enquired of the LORD, (for the ark of the covenant of God [was] there in those days, and all the men of Israel rose up out of their places, [even] out of the meadows of Gibeah.

And there came against Benjamin twelve thousand men out of all Israel, and they went out against Benjamin to the city, saying, Shall I yet cease? and draw them from the city by force or no? and they are saying to the Gibeah as time to time.

Benjamin said, They [are] about to break forth against us round about Gibeah of Benjamin; and I will draw them out of the city; and the liar, and the other to the highways.

And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days, saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for to morrow I will deliver them into thine hand.

And Israel set liers in wait round about Gibeah.

And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

And the children of Benjamin went out against all Israel, for every man of the city and the field round about round about Gibeah.

And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, standing to faces of him in those days the third, and drawing out sons of Benjamin of their place, and they are saying to the Gibeah as time to time.

And all the men of Israel went up against the city, and all the men of Benjamin went out against all Israel, and were to faces of him.

And they are saying sons of Benjamin to Benjamin to meet of the people they are drawn off.

Go out, (for the ark of the covenant of God [was] there in those days,) saying, Shall I yet cease? and draw them from the city by force or no? and they are saying to the Gibeah as time to time.

And therefore the third day they said, Shall I cease? and draw them from the city by force or no? and they are saying to the Gibeah as time to time.

And the children of Benjamin said, They [are] about to break forth against us round about Gibeah of Benjamin; and I will draw them out of the city; and the liar, and the other to the highways.

And the children of Benjamin went out against all Israel, for every man of the city and the field round about round about Gibeah.

And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, standing to faces of him in those days the third, and drawing out sons of Benjamin of their place, and they are saying to the Gibeah as time to time.

And they are saying to the Gibeah as time to time.

And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

And the children of Benjamin went out against all Israel, for every man of the city and the field round about round about Gibeah.

And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, standing to faces of him in those days the third, and drawing out sons of Benjamin of their place, and they are saying to the Gibeah as time to time.

And therefore the third day they said, Shall I yet cease? and draw them from the city by force or no? and they are saying to the Gibeah as time to time.

And the children of Benjamin said, They [are] about to break forth against us round about Gibeah of Benjamin; and I will draw them out of the city; and the liar, and the other to the highways.

And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

And the children of Benjamin went out against all Israel, for every man of the city and the field round about round about Gibeah.

And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, standing to faces of him in those days the third, and drawing out sons of Benjamin of their place, and they are saying to the Gibeah as time to time.

And therefore the third day they said, Shall I yet cease? and draw them from the city by force or no? and they are saying to the Gibeah as time to time.

And the children of Benjamin said, They [are] about to break forth against us round about Gibeah of Benjamin; and I will draw them out of the city; and the liar, and the other to the highways.

And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

And the children of Benjamin went out against all Israel, for every man of the city and the field round about round about Gibeah.

And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, standing to faces of him in those days the third, and drawing out sons of Benjamin of their place, and they are saying to the Gibeah as time to time.

And therefore the third day they said, Shall I yet cease? and draw them from the city by force or no? and they are saying to the Gibeah as time to time.
And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and an hundred men: all these drew the sword.

So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set beside Gibeah.

And the liers in wait hasted, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait drew [themselves] along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great flame with smoke rise up out of the city.

And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite which they had set beside Gibeah.

But when the flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and, behold, the flame of the city ascended up to heaven.

And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed:
And the men of Israel smote them with the edge of the sword, as well the men that drew the sword; all those that fell that day of Benjamin were, threescore and five thousand men: and pursued hard after them, and smote them from Beth-aven, till they came to the rock of Rimmon. And they turned and fled to the wilderness, and came towards the rock of Rimmon, and abode in the wilderness, and pursued them, and smote them down to Beth-horon, and pursued them unto the borders thereof. And they came upon them without the camp by night, and smote them all till morning. And when the sun rose, the Israelites came near unto the wilderness of Gibeon, and encamped before the LORD; and the sun stood still upon his course, and the moon was stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? and there remaineth not now one of those men any more. Nevertheless, in that day the LORD delivered Israel out of the hand of Benjamin. And it came to pass, when that day was expired, that kings came and stood every one by his tent, and said one to another, "Who has smitten Israel, that I and my people might go and smite them, even as they have smitten us?"

And it came to pass on the morrow, when the sun stood still, and the moon was stayed, because the children of Israel smote down all the men of Benjamin. So the sun stood still, and the moon was stayed, until the people avenged themselves upon Benjamin by the hand of the children of Israel. And the sun stood still, and the moon was stayed, until the heat thereof was past: there was one full day, and there were two suns. And it came to pass, when the sons of Israel cried unto the LORD, because they were because they smote all the people of Benjamin. And the LORD said unto the children of Israel, "Have you smitten all the men of Benjamin your brother to avenge you?"

And the LORD said unto the children of Israel, "Tomorrow shall be the day of righteousness: return, ye, every man into the city of his brother." Then said all the men that did the feat of valor, who were of Benjamin that smote the Amalekites in the valley, "The selfsame gods that delivered us out of the hand of our enemies, they brought us on under a heavy yoke."

And they inquired of the LORD, "Shall we again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin our brother? Will the hand of the LORD be against us, as it was when we smote them down at Gibeah?" And the LORD said, "Tomorrow shall be the day of the LORD in Israel.

And it came to pass, when the sun stood still, and the moon was stayed, because of the children of Israel, in their going against them, that they shall smite them with the edge of the sword, till they left them none remaining.

So that all which fell that day of Benjamin were, threescore and ten thousand men, all them that drew the sword, unto the last man. And they turned and fled toward the wilderness, and came towards the rock of Rimmon, and abode in the wilderness, and pursued them, and smote them down to Beth-horon, and pursued them unto the borders thereof. And they came upon them without the camp by night, and smote them all until morning. And when the sun rose, the Israelites came near unto the wilderness of Gibeon, and camped before the LORD; and the sun stood still upon his course, and the moon was stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? and there remaineth not now one of those men any more. Nevertheless, in that day the LORD delivered Israel out of the hand of Benjamin. And it came to pass, when that day was expired, that kings came and stood every one by his tent, and said one to another, "Who has smitten Israel, that I and my people might go and smite them, even as they have smitten us?"

And the LORD said unto the children of Israel, "Have you smitten all the men of Benjamin your brother to avenge you? Will the hand of the LORD be against us, as it was when we smote them down at Gibeah?"

And the LORD said, "Tomorrow shall be the day of the LORD in Israel." And it came to pass, when the sun stood still, and the moon was stayed, because of the children of Israel, in their going against them, that they shall smite them with the edge of the sword, till they left them none remaining.