Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth, [though] he hide it under his own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where [is] he?

11. His bones are full [of the sin] of his youth, which shall lie down with him in the dust.

12. Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth, [though] he hide it under his tongue;

13. [Though] he spare it, and forsake it not; but keep it still within his mouth:

Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth, [though] he hide it under his own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where [is] he?
And he shall see the rivers, the floods, the brooks of honey and butter.

21 There shall none of his meat be left; therefore shall no man look for his goods.

22 In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: every hand of the wicked shall come upon him.

23 [When] he is about to fill his belly, [God] shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain [it] upon him while he is eating.

24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, [and] the bow of steel shall strike him through.

25 It is drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terrors [are] upon him.

26 All darkness [shall be] hid in his secret places: a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.
27. The heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him.

28. The increase of his house shall depart, [and his goods] shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29. This [is] the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed unto him by God.
