Psalms 107

O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;

And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.

Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, [and] he delivered them out of their distresses.

And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

Oh that [men] would praise the LORD [for] his goodness, and [for] his wonderful works to the children of men!

For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, [being] bound in affliction and iron;

Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the most High:

Therefore he brought down their heart with labour: they fell down, and [there was] none to help.

Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, [and] he saved them out of their distresses.

He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

Oh that [men] would praise the LORD [for] his goodness, and [for] his at the time of their distresses.

And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.

They go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

Oh that men would praise the LORD [for] his goodness, and [for] his wonderful works to the children of men!

Fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

Psalms 107

24. These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep.

25. For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26. They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.

27. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits’ end.

28. He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

29. Oh that men would praise the LORD [for] his goodness, and [for] his wonderful works to the children of men!

30. They go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

31. These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep.

32. For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

33. They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.

34. They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits’ end.

35. For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.
And he maketh the wilderness a dwelling, and the watersprings into dry ground.

A fruitful land into a standing habitation; the assembly of the elders, and the children of men!

And he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation;

And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase.

Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground;

A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings.

And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation;

And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase.

He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

Again, they are minished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and
He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, [where there is] no way.

Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh [him] families like a flock.

The righteous shall see [it], and rejoice: and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

Whoso [is] wise, and will observe these [things], even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.
